Lawrence Petrow
3238 Hazelwood Ave.
Burlington, ON
L7M 2T4

Dear Mr. Petrow,

I am writing to you in my capacity as Chair of the Division of Anatomy, which encompasses oversight of the Body Donation Program at the University of Toronto. At this time, I would like to express our sincere gratitude for the generosity of your family in choosing to make this invaluable contribution to the advancement of medical teaching and research, and for your confidence in our institution.

As per your request, we are notifying you of the University of Toronto's Annual Memorial Service at which the name of Genevieve Olga Petrow is read. In response to the COVID pandemic, we have prepared a Virtual Memorial Service which you, your family and friends, can view at your convenience. The Memorial Service will be released on our website on December 8th and can be found at <https://surgery.utoronto.ca/willed-body-program>. The Memorial Service was conducted by the Reverend Pearce Carefoote and filmed in the Chapel of St. James Cemetery.

You previously indicated that you would like to receive Mrs. Petrow's cremated remains for private burial. Please contact the cemetery office directly to make arrangements at 416-964-9194.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Mrs. Alexandra Surugiu at willedbodyprogram@utoronto.ca or 416-978-2692.

Yours sincerely,

Cindi Morshead, PhD
Professor and Chair

TEMERTY FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Dear Friends,

Today, on behalf of the Temerty Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto and the Division of Anatomy, Department of Surgery, staff and students, I would like to welcome you to our memorial service. Today we will express our sincere appreciation for the generous and valuable donation that was made by the persons we are honouring and remembering at this service.

Thanks to their thoughtfulness, our students have gained an excellent knowledge of Anatomy which will be essential to them in their future careers. Our students include those training in: Biomedical Communications, Dentistry, Medicine and Surgery, Occupational Therapy, Kinesiology & Physical Education, Physical Therapy, Physician Assistant Program, The Faculty of Arts and Science, The School of Graduate Studies, OCAD University, Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine, and the Michener Institute for Applied Health Sciences.

I welcome you to watch, listen and remember as we honour your loved ones who contributed to the exceptional educational experience of our students.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Cindi Morshead".

Chair, Division of Anatomy

THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

To All Families, Friends, Students, and Distinguished Guests,

On behalf of the Class of 2023 in the Temerty School of Medicine at the University of Toronto, we would like to thank you for joining us at the Memorial Service in honour of your loved ones, who so generously donated their bodies to the Division of Anatomy.

Over these past two years, we have had the opportunity to learn the intricacies of the human body through our Anatomy course. Ultimately, this privilege was provided for us by the gift of your loved ones. This learning has been pivotal for advancing our understanding of medicine and will strengthen our ability to apply our knowledge for the benefit of countless future patients.

While the landscape of medicine is continually changing, the University of Toronto has maintained a longstanding tradition of teaching medicine through experiential discovery of the human body. The invaluable and selfless donation by your loved ones has not only provided the very core of this extraordinary opportunity, but has inspired us to have a deeper appreciation for the value of human life by giving us the opportunity to care for their bodies with respect, empathy, and dignity. Further, this gift allowed us to directly confront the experience of death first-hand; an important lesson that we will continually have to engage in throughout our careers.

We are incredibly humbled and appreciative of this remarkable learning opportunity, and are forever thankful to your loved ones and their families for the continued support of our medical education.

Sincerely,

Jenn Kao and Tao Chan
MD Class of 2023 Co-Presidents

READING

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

Anne Agur, Professor

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

SELECTED MEMORIAL READINGS

This Sacred Thread – by Heather K. Janules

Maryam Faiz, Assistant Professor

They once dwelled among us, the people of memory.

*They who knew us, they who taught us,
They who hurt us, they who loved us.*

They touch our lives time and again,
through their presence and their absence.

*Through familiar scents and favorite songs,
Through old stories and renewed sorrow.*

As the earth turns and leaves fall,
We reach back to renew the bonds between us.

*With hearts and hands open
We hold onto love,
Ever-stronger than death.*

We reach back in gratitude and understanding -
Without our time together,
The pain and the joy,

*We would never be who we are today;
We would have little to pass on ourselves.*

Without fear, with thanksgiving
and with hope for all that awaits,

*We remember those who have gone before,
We honor the circle of life and death,
And our place within this sacred thread.*

I Carry Your Heart With Me – by E. E. Cummings

Danielle Bentley, Assistant Professor

I carry your heart with me (I carry it in my heart)
I am never without it (anywhere I go you go, my dear;
and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling)
I fear no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet)
I want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true)
And it's you are whatever a moon has always meant
and whatever a sun will always sing is you

Here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide)
And this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart
I carry your heart (I carry it in my heart)

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO GRAVESITE

The University of Toronto gravesite is marked by a memorial stone which bears the following inscription:

"Here lie the remains of those who, in the interests of others, donated their bodies for health, education and research. The University of Toronto deeply appreciates their generosity and marks this place to honour their memory."
